Foreword

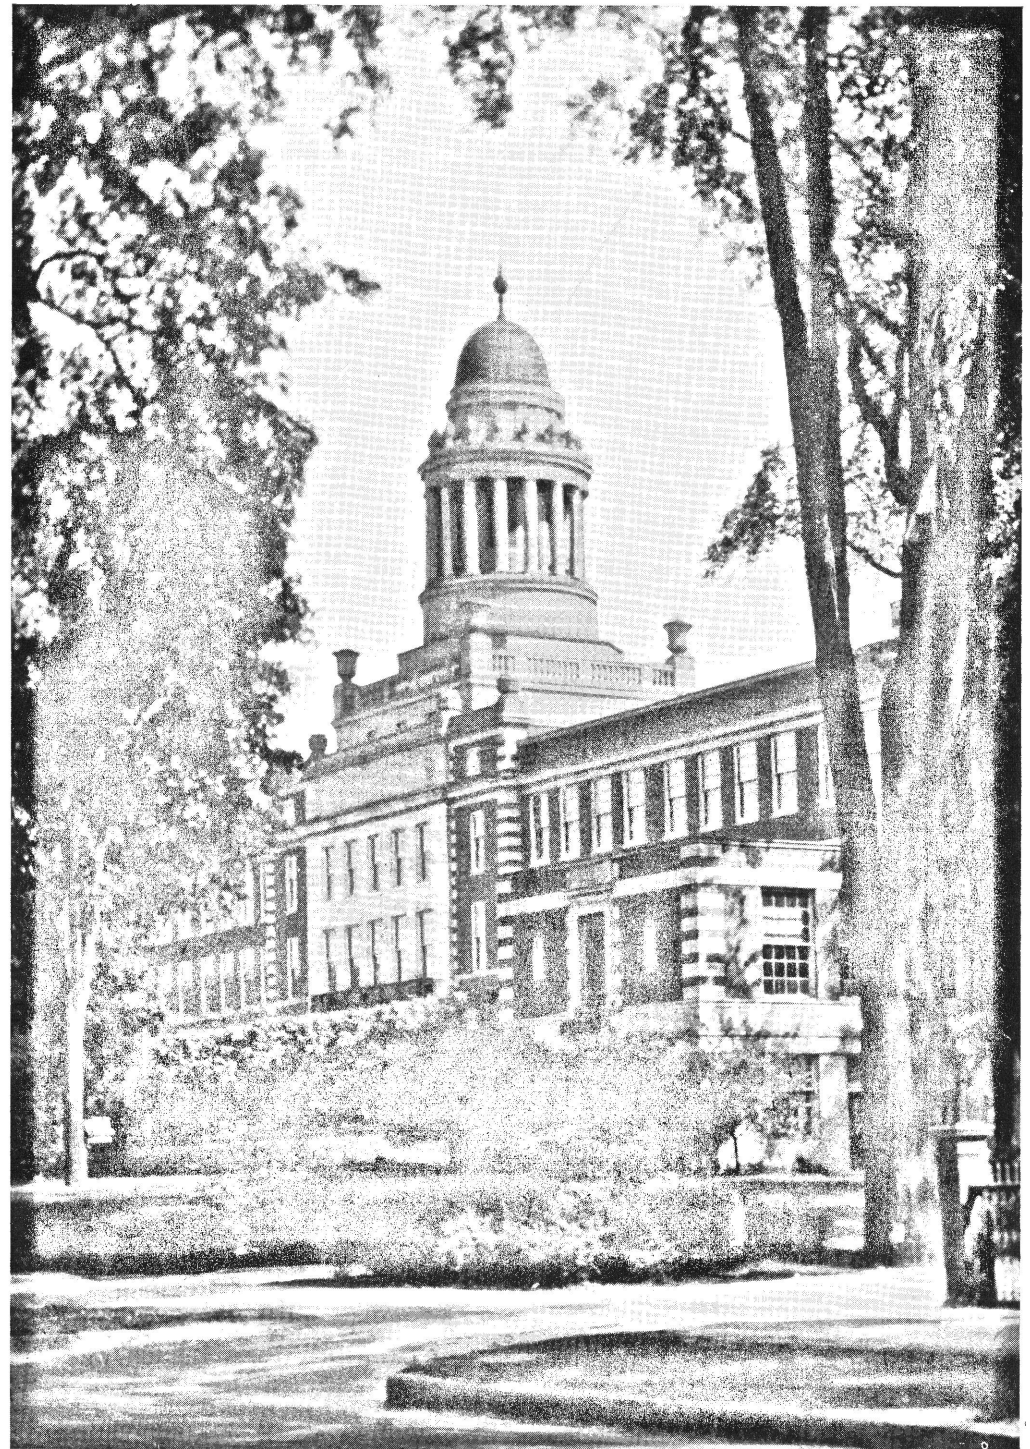

MYTHOLOGY tells us that in antiquity's mist-shaded past the gods of ancient Greece roamed proudly in their home atop Mount Olympus. From this tale, the staff of The Dome has chosen its theme, with the desire that these adventures of the Greeks may be transferred in your minds to the wonderful adventures that have been part of your life at Pittsfield High School.

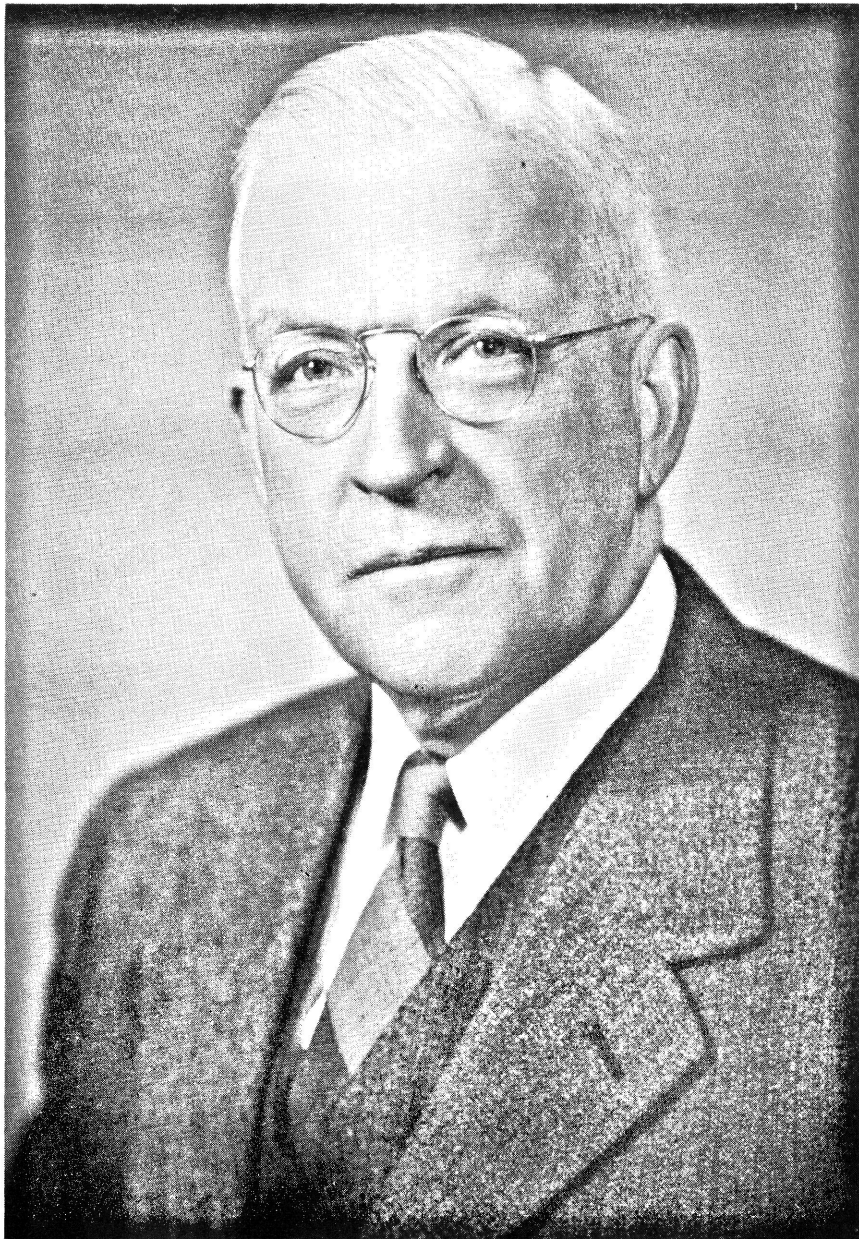

In time, perhaps you will lose trace of those memorable moments. In that case, you have only to turn the pages of this book for that constant reminder of your youth. This book, we hope, will be a remembrance of the past, a thought for the present, and an inspiration for the future.

Alma Mater Song

Words by Esther Kierstead '38 and Friend Kierstead '39

Tune: "All Through the Night"

Guardian elm trees cast their shadows
 O'er thy ivied walls;
 Sons and daughters ever loyal
 Throng thy honored halls.
 Pittsfield High School, Pittsfield High School,
 Alma Mater dear,
 Help us to preserve thy honor
 Through each coming year.

Great has been thy former record,
 Greater will it be,
 As the future generations
 Sing their praise to thee.
 Proud are we who through thy portals
 Into life do pass;
 Help us ever to be worthy,
 Each and every class.

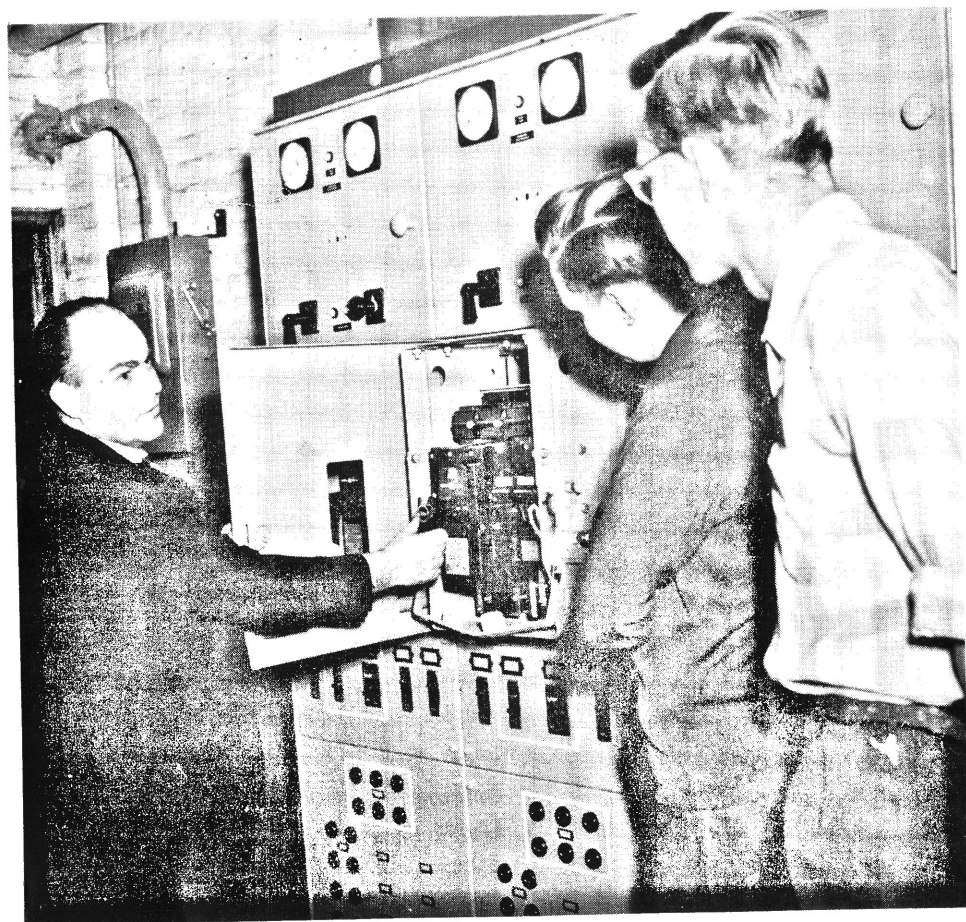

MR. ROY M. STROUT
Principal

*Jove, the Supreme, before mortals assembled
Spoke thunderous words and mere men trembled;
But our supreme ruler with a nod and a smile
Gives us fresh reassurance that life is worth while.*

*Head of the gods in the quonset hut,
In the "woodshed sessions," watch him strut!*

Tribute to Miss Millet

IN recognition of her patient supervision and unfailing co-operation, we, the Class of 1952, pay tribute to our class adviser, Miss Helene Millet.

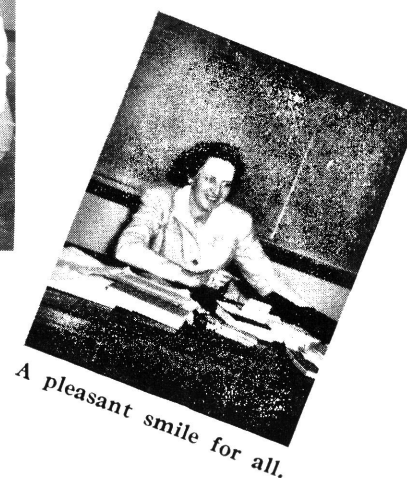

Her sparkling personality has made it pleasant and stimulating to work with her and has greatly encouraged us in solving the problems which have arisen from time to time in our class.

Her faithful guidance and her genuine interest in all of our activities have made our years at Pittsfield High School successful ones, the memories of which we shall always cherish.

This tribute is an attempt to express our sincere appreciation for her help, although we realize that to give her a full preception of our gratitude would be quite impossible.

The coach gives the team a pep-talk.

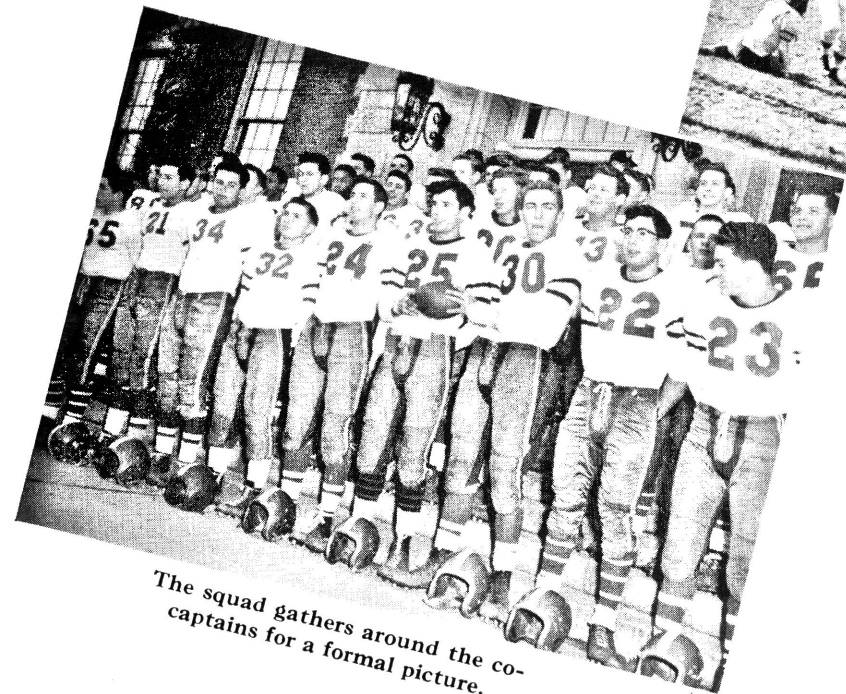

The win over Holyoke High marked Pittsfield's first victory of the 1951 campaign.

The warriors come forth to do battle.

A scene from the exciting Holyoke game which Pittsfield won, 21-15.

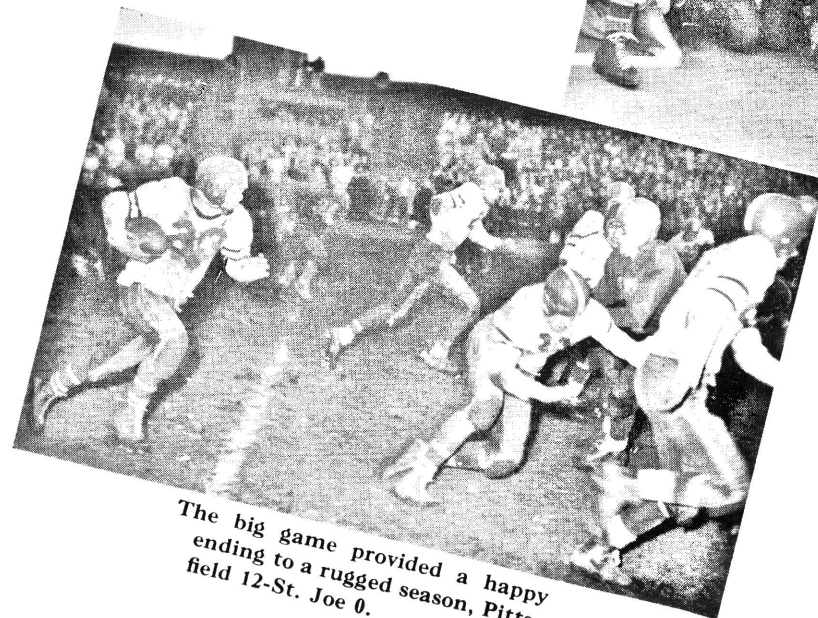

The squad gathers around the co-captains for a formal picture.

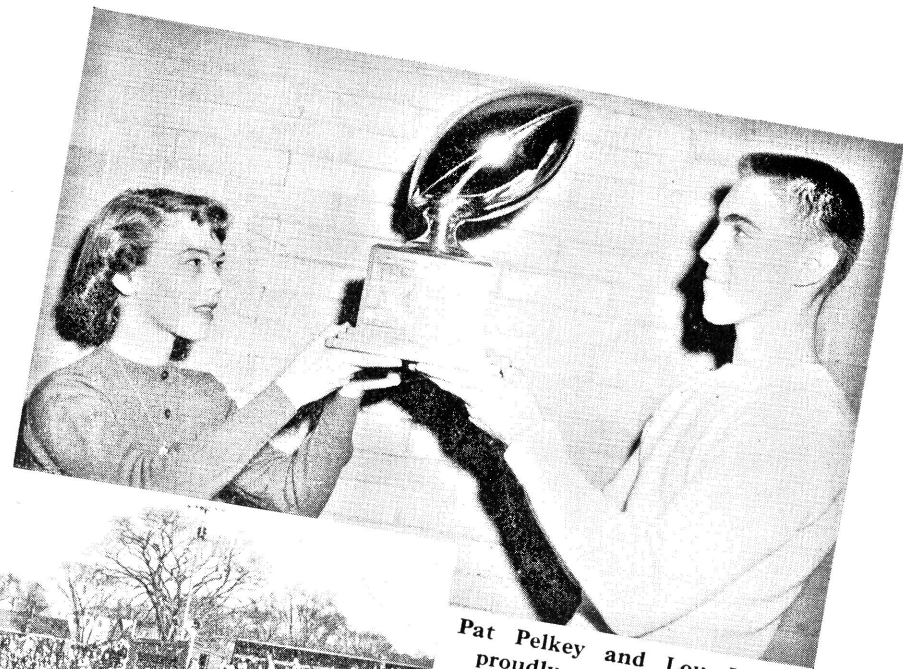

Although P. H. S. lost to Drury, it was plays like this one that kept the game close.

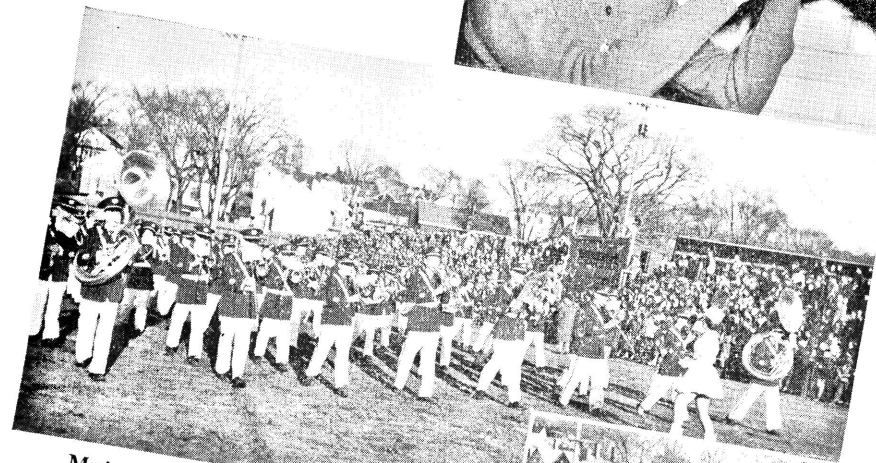

St. Joe has had to bite the dust, and P. H. S. team and school are jubilant.

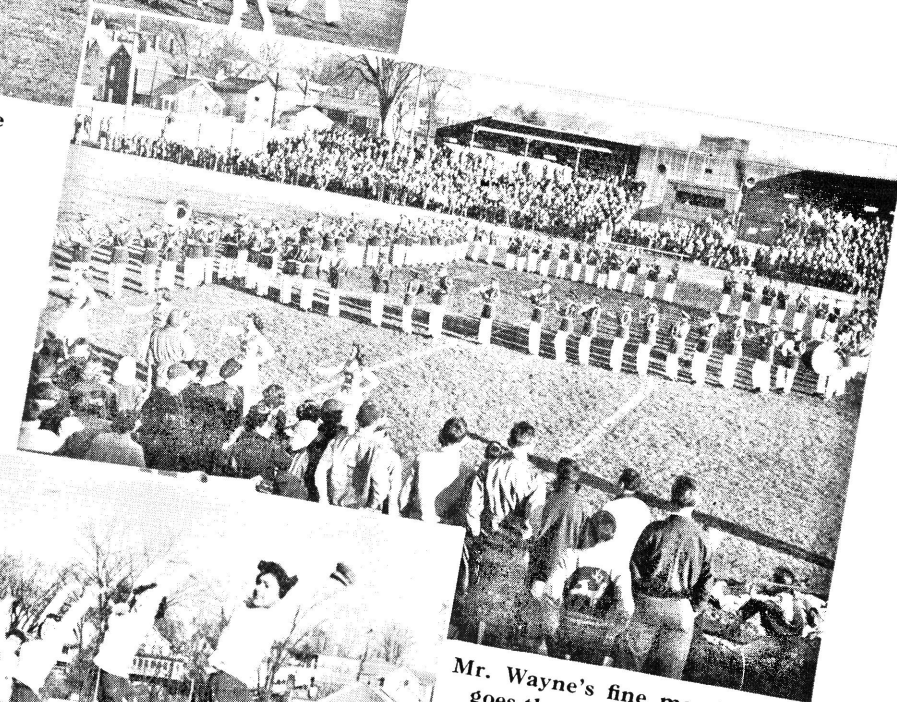

The big game provided a happy ending to a rugged season, Pittsfield 12-St. Joe 0.

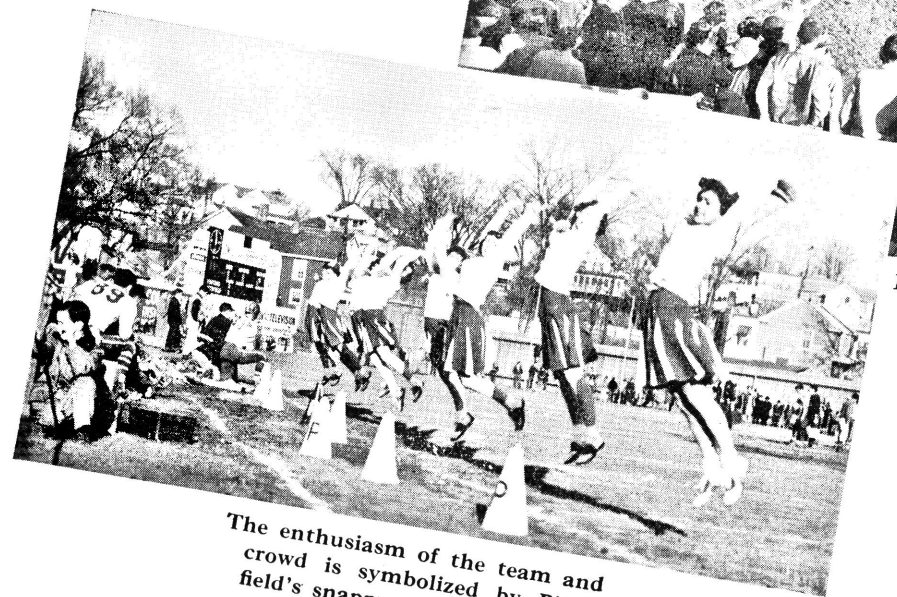

Pat Pelkey and Lou Krzynoski proudly display the trophy awarded to the city champions.

Majorettes, the band, and the crowd all contribute color to the traditional Armistice Day game.

Mr. Wayne's fine marching band goes through its paces before the sell-out crowd.

The enthusiasm of the team and crowd is symbolized by Pittsfield's snappy cheerleaders.

Girls' Basketball

We struggled through Round Robin,
 Ten teams that gave their all
 To take the winner's title
 And win in basketball.
 Then on to class team tourney,
 To lose—to win—to fight—
 Each girl had hopes for victory,
 To fly the champion's kite.
 Well, the kite is all yours, Juniors,
 We Seniors but the tail,
 And you, young Sophs, are but the string
 That helped the kite to sail.
 Congratulations, Juniors!

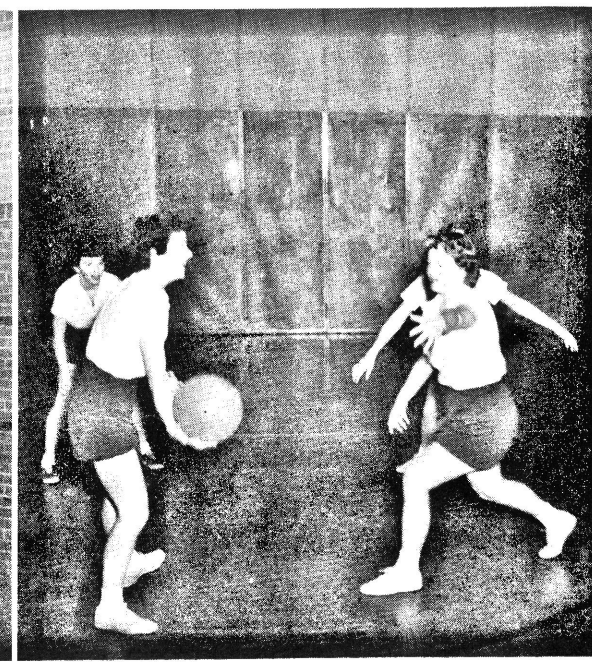

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Co-Captains A. Bruzzi and B. Marsters ready to take on the Juniors

Tense moment as Bobbie Lipari gets shot away for a basket

A gallant senior team moves swiftly down the court

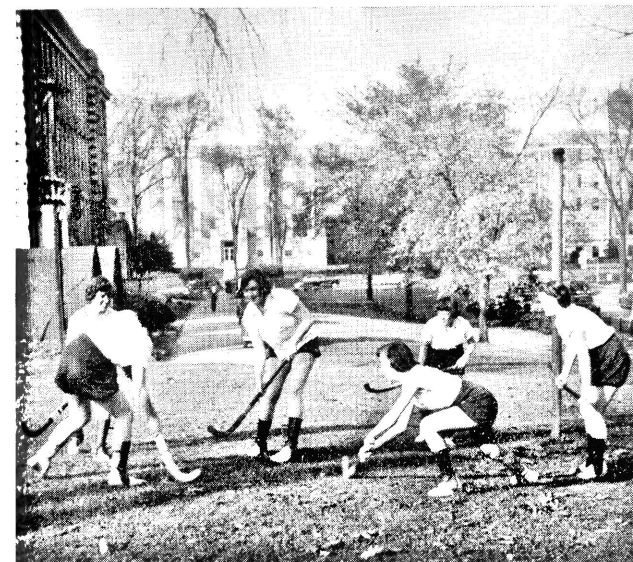

SENIOR FIELD HOCKEY

Kneeling—P. Gale, B. Lipari, co-captains

Senior Field Hockey

The leaves of brown came tumbling down
 Beginning in September;
 Then, full of steam, each hockey team
 Played right on 'til November.
 The senior gals, who are the champs,
 Fought hard with eyes a-gleam,
 To take the title from a grand
 And glorious junior team.
 The little sophs, new to the game,
 Provided quite a scare,
 But all succumbed to senior skill
 As snowflakes filled the air.
 Congratulations, Senior Team!
 An orchid to each one,
 For a happy hockey season,
 For the victory and the fun.

Hard fighting Seniors defend their goal.

Co-Captains Gale and Lipari rest on their laurels (and their hockey sticks).

Still smiling in spite of defeat, volleyball Co-Captain Navin and Quirk.

"Get that ball over the net!" Janet Gerlach strives mightily while team waits tensely.

SENIOR VOLLEY BALL TEAM—1952

Rear—B. Lipari, D. Shantz, J. Gerlach, P. Gale, B. Marsters, A. Bruzzi, P. Coughlin.
Front—E. Persip, Co-Captains N. Quirk and M. Navin, S. Cook.

Senior Volleyball

Slap! Bang! Tap! Zing!
As over the net it goes.
The loss of a serve
The thrill of a spike
Only a player knows.
It's volleyball, a popular sport
With gals at P. H. S.
The tournament champs
We all would be,
The outcome's just a guess.
The senior team had hopes as high
But the juniors spoiled their dream.
Congratulations, Juniors,
You were the better team.

The band gives that something extra to the game.

Cheerleaders smile pretty for the cameraman.

The cheerleaders bring the crowd into action.

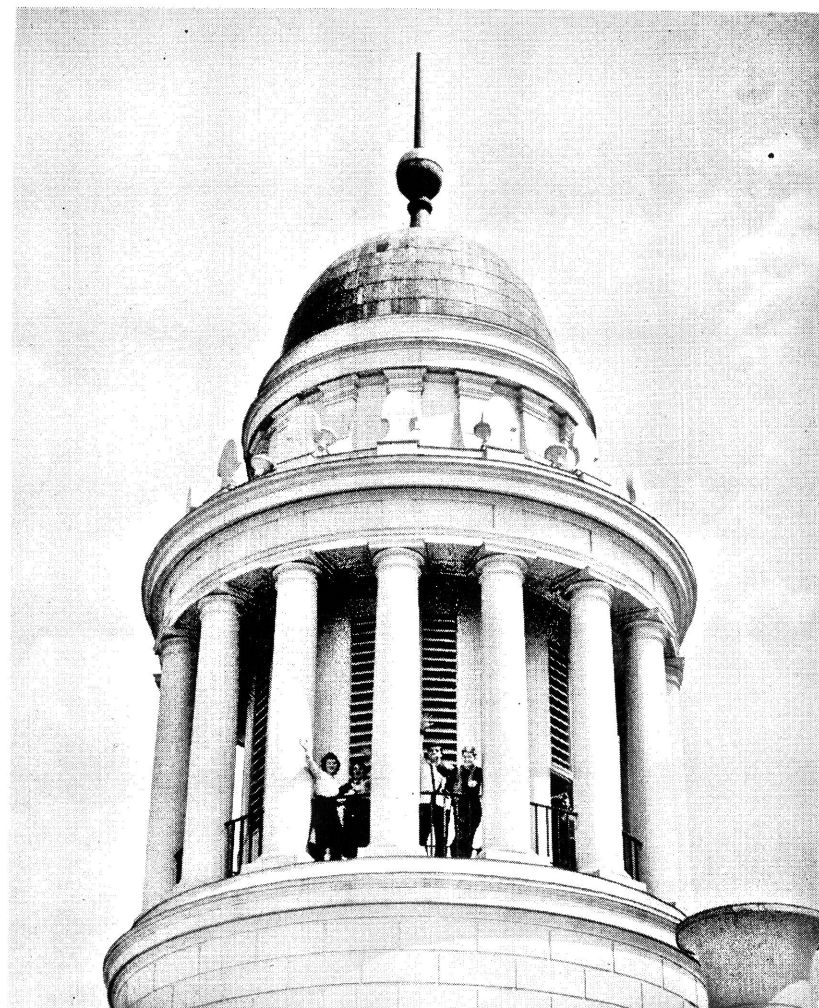

Ruth Bondini goes through her steps.

Highlights of the Season

Come on, everybody yell!

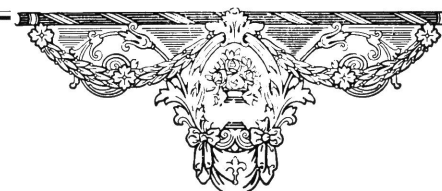

"Hail and Farewell!"

BEFORE YOU CHOOSE—
 COMPARE BOTH TYPES.
 ONLY SERVEL, THE GAS REFRIGERATOR, STAYS
 SILENT—LASTS LONGER.
 LOOK AT BOTH TYPES OF REFRIGERATORS, ONE
 USES MOTORS, MACHINERY, MOVING PARTS, TO MAKE ICE AND COLD.
 THE OTHER—THE FAMOUS SERVEL GAS REFRIG-
 ERATOR OPERATES WITH A TINY JET OF GAS
 FLAME. NOT A SINGLE MOVING PART TO WEAR
 OR MAKE NOISE. SO SERVEL ALONE, STAYS
 SILENT, LASTS LONGER. COME SEE THE NEW GAS
 REFRIGERATOR MODELS AT THE SALESROOM OF

THE DOME

Life on an Earthly Olympus

*with the Deities and Mortals
That Dwell Thereon*

Presented by

THE SENIOR CLASS OF PITTSFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
Pittsfield, Massachusetts
June, 1952

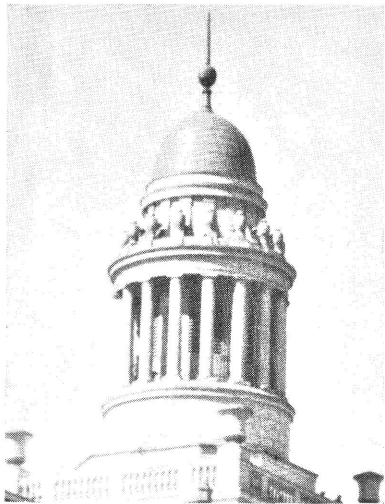

MURIEL DANIELS
Editor-in-Chief

Foreword

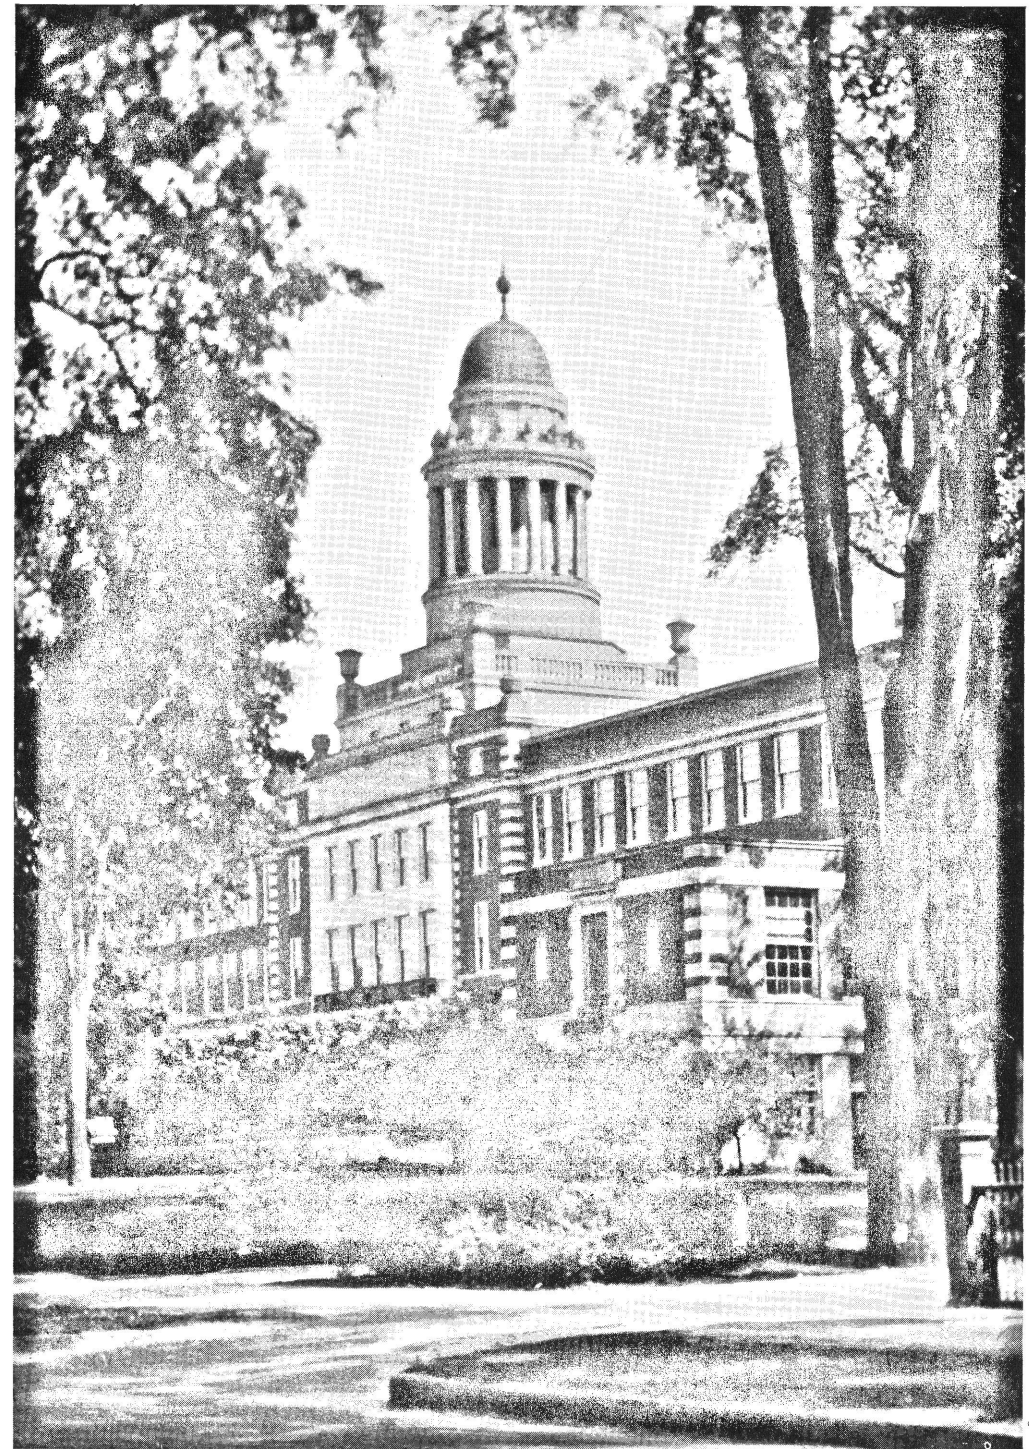

MYTHOLOGY tells us that in antiquity's mist-shaded past the gods of ancient Greece roamed proudly in their home atop Mount Olympus. From this tale, the staff of The Dome has chosen its theme, with the desire that these adventures of the Greeks may be transferred in your minds to the wonderful adventures that have been part of your life at Pittsfield High School.

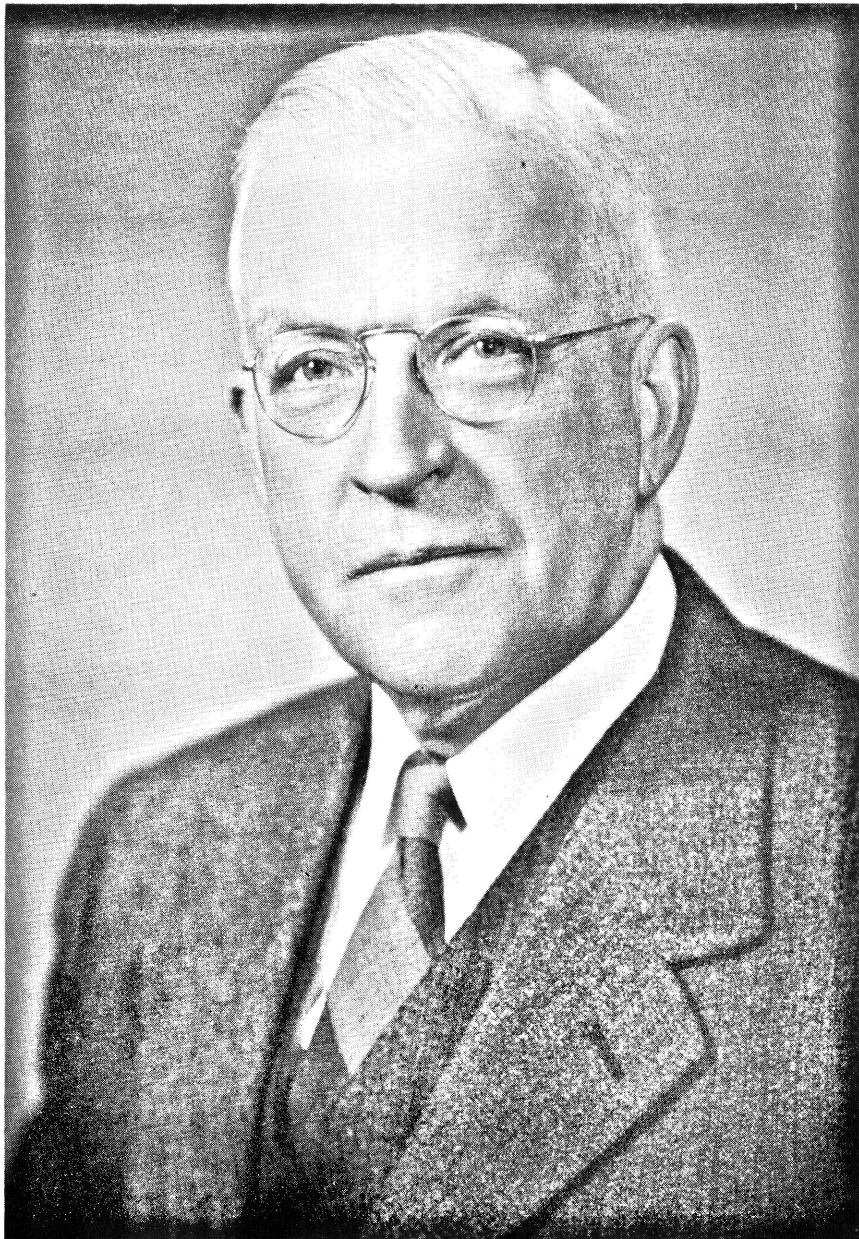

In time, perhaps you will lose trace of those memorable moments. In that case, you have only to turn the pages of this book for that constant reminder of your youth. This book, we hope, will be a remembrance of the past, a thought for the present, and an inspiration for the future.
